

THE CLINTON-GORE ADMINISTRATION IS REFUSING TO PROVIDE ADEQUATE HEALTH CARE FOR OUR SENIOR CITIZENS

(Mr. WICKER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WICKER. Mr. Speaker, why is the Clinton administration short-changing Medicare? Under the Clinton-Gore leadership, the executive branch's Health Care Financing Administration is refusing to spend money which is desperately needed by our Nation's elderly population and which has been authorized under the Balanced Budget Act. This amounts to an astonishing $20 billion this administration is withholding from the most deserving members of our society: retired Americans who are suffering from illness.

There is a lot of discussion in this town about abiding by the caps of the Balanced Budget Act, and I support the idea of requiring our appropriation bills to follow the budget. But when the Congress and the President enact a statute that says funds are needed to ensure the health of our country's greatest generation, HCFA has an obligation to abide by the law.

It is a scandal that the Clinton-Gore administration is refusing to provide adequate health care for our senior citizens.

AMERICA GIVES, GIVES, GIVES TO RUSSIA AND RUSSIA TAKES, TAKES, TAKES

(Mr. TRAFICANT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, a classified report says, and I quote, Russia is spying on NATO and America. The report goes on and says Russia has recruited spies and is sabotaging our activities in the Balkans. Now, if that is not enough to scorch your Apache, Russia is passing on our secrets to Milosevic. Unbelievable. Think about it. America gives, gives, gives to Russia. Russia takes, takes, takes; then stabs us right in the back.

Beam me up. I say Russia is a bunch of ingrates that should not get one more penny from Uncle Sam. Finally I say, after the bombing is over, let Russia go in with their rubles and rebuild Yugoslavia, not Uncle Sam.

THE QUESTION ARISES, WHAT WAS THIS PRESIDENT OPPOSED TO IN VIETNAM?

(Mr. PITTS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PITTS. Mr. Speaker, I want to read a quote made recently by retired three star General Tom Griffin, attempting to understand our involvement in Yugoslavia. I quote: "Now let's see here if I understand all this correctly. President Clinton has ordered our forces to engage an entrenched, politically motivated enemy backed by the Russians, on their home ground, in a foreign civil war, in difficult terrain, with limited military objectives, bombing restrictions, boundary and operational restrictions, uneasy allies, far across the ocean, with uncertain goals, without prior consultation with Congress, the potential for escalation, while limiting the forces at his disposal, and the majority of Americans opposed to or at least uncertain about the value of the action being worth American lives," end quote.

When we review history, the question arises, what was this President opposed to in Vietnam? Are we going to learn from the history of the 1960s?

IF WE HAVE THE POWER TO BOMB, THEN WE HAVE THE POWER TO SETTLE THIS WAR IN YUGOSLAVIA

(Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, there has been a lot of finger pointing with the tragedy of Littleton, Colorado. Mr. Speaker, today I announce a proposal for "give a child a chance" omnibus mental health services bill for our children, for there are many things that we can do, but I believe that it is important that we listen to young people and provide them with school counseling services and guidance services which will be available to intervene for children at risk and others.

Mr. Speaker, as we talk about violence, let me move quickly to a subject and join my colleague in asking for a cessation in the bombing. I have asked the President for three days, 72 hours, in order to begin talks on a negotiated settlement over the Kosova conflict.

Mr. Speaker, I believe we can win. I supported the air strike. I certainly did not support the bill yesterday that was throwing good money after bad, $15 billion, although I supported it before for the refugees and military pay increase. If one has the power, they need to use it right. We need to go to the negotiated settlement table right now and deal with the request or the needs of the NATO allies and begin to send refugees back home.

When I went to the refugee camps in Macedonia, they said one thing to me: Promise to help us go back home. And that was my promise. If we have the power to bomb, then we have the power to settle this.

We need to be at the table of settlement, the negotiated settlement with

Mr. Milosevic. It has nothing to do with whether he is a war criminal. That is another matter. Let us get a negotiated settlement and stop this conflict now. It is time now to stop the bombing and begin to discuss the way to really get our refugees back home and bring our military personnel back home.

CLINTON ADMINISTRATION SHORTCHANGING SENIORS

(Mr. SCHAFFER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SCHAFFER. Mr. Speaker, why is the Clinton administration short-changing our seniors? Here is a story we will not be hearing much in the mainstream media. The administration is spending $20 billion a year less on Medicare than Congress authorized and provided under the 1997 Balanced Budget Act. My colleagues heard that right, and let me repeat it. The administration is hoarding $20 billion a year from the funds the Republican Congress provided under the current law.

Skeptical? I encourage my colleagues to give a call over to their friendly HCFA offices and verify these numbers for themselves. One can hardly grasp the irony of the startling facts. The same administration that has run millions and millions of dollars in deceptive Medicare TV ads aimed at scaring seniors is now found to be short-changing the same seniors they claim to care so much about.

We cannot blame seniors for becoming cynical about this administration's constant willingness to play politics with Medicare. Do our seniors not deserve better?

ADMINISTRATION CUTS MEDICARE BY REFUSING TO SPEND THE MONEY

(Mr. HAYWORTH asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HAYWORTH. Mr. Speaker, my friend, the gentleman from Colorado (Mr. SCHAFFER) points out yet another way in which the Clinton-Gore team says one thing and does another. Indeed, to use the rhetoric of Medicare from 1996, in essence Mr. Clinton, Mr. Gore and their liberal allies have cut Medicare by $20 billion by refusing to spend the money.

I suppose it will come as no great surprise to the pundits and those in town here engaged in spin, because we have a credibility canyon of people saying one thing and doing another.

That is why, Mr. Speaker, not only in terms of defending our seniors, but for all Americans in terms of national security, this House should release the
